

President's Message

Community Dumpster Misuse - Last weekend the Eagle Crest Resort hosted a Future Farmers of America conference, and it exposed some problems with the way that the servicing of rental properties is happening. This event, in my opinion, gave us a preview of what could well happen during the busy summer rental period if current behaviors continue.

Our Forest Greens and Creekside neighborhoods use community dumpsters and last weekend saw them significantly overloaded:

